Global Data Consultants, LLC Announces the Asset Acquisition of Holder Technology Group

Chambersburg, PA – December 5, 2006 - Global Data Consultants, LLC, (Global Data) announces the asset acquisition of Chambersburg-based Holder Technology Group (HTG). As a result, Global Data will assume support and development responsibilities for all HTG's clients. The acquisition will broaden Global Data's client base and provide enhanced service offerings to current HTG clients.

"We are pleased and excited to announce this new acquisition", said Gregory D. Courtney, Founder and CEO of Global Data. "The acquisition combines the strengths and capabilities of both technology providers in the tri-state area and creates another exciting milestone for our company's growth."

G. Gregory Holder, Founder and President of HTG added, "We are happy to have reached a mutual beneficial agreement and are confident that our clients will receive high quality support and service from Global Data."

The transition of current HTG clients to Global Data will be managed by Nelson H. Witmer, Global Data's Director of Infrastructure and Networking Services. "We are dedicated to providing premier IT services to our new clients and confident that we will meet or exceed their expectations", Nelson H. Witmer confirmed, "We are customer focused and ready to provide the attention of detail that our clients expect from our operational teams on each engagement."
