FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Global Data Joins The Ingram Micro Services Network

Chambersburg, PA – April 13, 2007 - Global Data Consultants, LLC (Global Data), a leading provider of network and IT related services, today announced it has joined the Ingram Micro Services Network (IMSN) to expand and enhance the company's on-site technical services capabilities and reach for corporate customers in the United States and Canada.

IMSN is the centerpiece of Ingram Micro Inc. services offering. Global Data will use the IMSN to provide technical support to those customers that may be out of the company's geographical market reach. This ability to 'dispatch on demand' will enable Global Data to better service its growing customer base and provide a broader spectrum of complementary, on-site customer support levels.

"The Ingram Micro Services Network is fast-becoming the professional services organization of choice", said Gregory D. Courtney, President and CEO of Global Data Consultants, LLC. By joining the IMSN, Global Data has demonstrated that it is committed to exceeding its customers' service and support expectations."
